A 38-year-old man from Teaneck was arrested Thursday evening about suspicious activity in the park.

After cops arrested Raul Rodriguez, 38, they found child pornography on his phone and a recording device in the men's restroom. He faces child endangerment charges.

Gurbir S. Grewal, the Bergen County Prosecutor, said he found a recording device in the restroom in Riverside County Park, and that Rodriguez was trying to record a person using the restroom.

The recording device was found in an area of the men's bathroom, Grewal said.

“Police found that Rodriguez's electronic device also contained child pornography,” Grewal said.

The Bergen County Prosecutor's Office is investigating the crime in the county-owned park.

Rodriguez had an attorney, and he could not be reached.

A spokesperson for the park said they have extended: "We are aware of the situation and are following the investigation. Our priority is the safety and security of our visitors. We are cooperating fully with the authorities."
